

Indian Strife Is Menace To Allied Cause
Says Observer

(Editor's note: In tomorrow's article Dewitt MacKenzie, war analyst of The Gettysburg Times, continues his discussion of a provisional National government as a solution of the Indian problem and presents the views of Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru, Indian liberal, and Dr. Syama Prasad Mookerjee, president of the Hindu Mahasabha, one of the political parties).

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

When I left India after studying the political crisis I submitted voluminous notes to British censorship so that I might be free to take them out of the country, and among these explosive items was the following:

"There are many people who believe that either Britain and the warring parties will settle their differences now or the dispute will be settled ultimately in the old fashioned way—by revolution."

Now, of course, the fact that the censor passed this note doesn't necessarily mean that he agreed there was danger of rebellion, but only that he accorded me extreme freedom of speech. Certainly there could be no challenge to the statement that many foresee revolt as the alternative to quick settlement.

Menace to Victory

Appropos of the crying necessity for speed, my previous articles on the dangers involved in this quarrel have emphasized three cardinal points:

1. This bloody controversy has ceased to be a family affair and has become a menace to the cause of the United Nations.

2. There is a serious food shortage in India which is expected to reach its peak about April, and many observers fear food riots.

3. Mahatma Gandhi's hunger strike, which may cost his life and thereby make him a saintly martyr in the eyes of countless worshipful followers, has vastly increased the dangers of the situation.

With these points before us the conclusion would seem to be unescapable that an immediate settlement is demanded in the interests not only of England and India, but of the United Nations. Obviously our own United States is vitally concerned.

Important Base

Any alternatives to agreement look pretty grim. The best one could hope for would be a long-drawn-out stalemate of bitterness. The great military base and arsenal from which the Allies must strike at Japan through Burma would be only partly effective because of dissension. And India would be lost as one of the guardians of United Nations' interests in the Orient after the war. But even if all hands subscribe to this view, which side is to make the first move?

The consensus as I found it, not only among impartial observers but in both warring camps, is that the first move is up to the government since it has the chief Nationalist leaders under lock and key and is sitting on the lid.

True, the authorities charge that Gandhi and supporters were responsible for the death and destruction which followed the breakdown, but the little mahatma and his followers emphatically disclaim any hand in the disturbances.

Up to British

Naturally, it's for the British government to decide whether it can afford to reopen the case. However, my investigations convinced me that should it do so there would be an eager response from the Indian leaders. I should add that I left India just before Gandhi started his hunger-strike and his death obviously might alter the entire situation.

There has been a great change of atmosphere since last summer. Many observers believe that the stiff attitude of the Indian leaders then may have been inspired by a belief that the Allies, and consequently Britain, were losing the war.

Be that as may, these leaders now know that an Allied victory is certain.

On the other side it must be recorded that Britain's triumph in Libya has made her feel very certain of her position. Whether this also has made her less inclined to dicker with the Nationalists remains to be seen.

Strong-Arm Methods

And now I come to an extraordinary phase of my research. I found a widespread belief among Indian leaders, government supporters and impartial observers that the way to achieve a settlement was for the British authorities to use strong-arm methods, that is, to set up a provisional national government and let those who didn't want to play the game stay out.

This provisional government would bear the stamp of the sovereignty which England has promised India. But it would leave exact details to be worked out and would be the bond to unite the various factions. The general view expressed to me was that everybody would come in.

What surprised me was to discover Indian leaders themselves subscribing to such an arbitrary procedure. Still, a bit of study disclosed the logic of the proposal.

FRIDAY IS LAST DAY TO SECURE RATION BOOK 2

Adams county residents were warned today by War Price and Rationing board officials not to fail to register for their War Ration Books No. 2 today or Friday at a school house. The flow of registrations gained in volume over the first day but failed to attain the proportions hoped for by the OPA personnel.

The local board announcement stated that any persons who fail to apply at the schoolhouses for their new war ration books will not be able to get the books "until a much later date not yet announced." The date probably will be later than March 15, the first date on which War Ration Book One may be issued to persons who have never had the initial book.

No instructions have been received here on future issues of Book Two so that persons who fail to make application for their books this week have no early prospect of being able to get the books that will be required to secure food under the point rationing system.

16,175 Register

Reports sent to the county rationing board office here Wednesday evening indicated a total registration of 10,675 for the second day compared with 5,500 on Tuesday.

The persons who received the 10,675 books surrendered 26,892 coffee stamps from their Ration Books One and had 4,422 canned goods stamps tallied from their new books.

In Gettysburg, 565 books were issued at Lincoln school on Wednesday with 512 canned goods stamps removed and 1,318 coffee stamps clipped; 744 at Meade school where 748 canned goods stamps and 1,478 coffee stamps were tallied; and 947 at High Street school where 672 canned good and 2,155 coffee stamps were removed.

Friday is the final day for securing the new ration books.

MRS. SHRYOCK DIES WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Eva G. Shryock, 67, 200 Steinwehr avenue, widow of Harry I. Shryock, died at the Warner hospital Wednesday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock from a complication of diseases. She had been ill since Christmas and was admitted to the hospital about eight weeks ago.

She was born in Adams county, a daughter of the late Jonas and Elizabeth (Sharrets) Marling. Her husband died February 2, 1925. The deceased resided in the county all her life and was a member of the Foursquare Gospel church and the Bible class.

Surviving are four children, Luther E. Shryock and Jesse Shryock, both of Gettysburg; Miss Elsie M. Shryock, Belmont, North Carolina, and Ralph E. Shryock, Chicago; five grandchildren, and three sisters, Mrs. Charles Schwartz, Gettysburg, R. D.; Mrs. Emory Plank, New Oxford, and Mrs. Harry Wolf, Gettysburg, R. D.

Funeral services from the Foursquare Gospel church Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock conducted by the Rev. and Mrs. Harold Myers, Interment in Mt. Joy cemetery.

Friends may call at the Bender funeral home Friday evening after 7 o'clock. The remains will lie in state at the church Saturday from 12:30 until the time of the services.

Ladies' Night Is Held At Elks Home

Approximately 500 members and their lady friends attended the Ladies' Night held by the Gettysburg Lodge of Elks at the lodge home Wednesday evening, which was held in observance of the 75th anniversary of the founding of the National Lodge on February 16, 1868.

A turkey dinner was served and during the dinner music was played by Reg Kehoe's girl marimba orchestra.

Following the dinner a floor show lasting approximately one hour and a half was presented by the orchestra.

Need 12 WAACs To Reach County Quota

Twelve young women from Adams county must be enrolled in the Women's Auxiliary Army Corps by the end of next month if this county is to reach the quota of 21 WAACs assigned at the beginning of the year. The last month of the recruiting campaign will open on Monday.

Nine enlistments in the women's corps have been announced by Private Mahlon P. Hartzell, Jr., who is in charge of recruiting here. He is on duty daily at the Gettysburg post office building from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. daily.

170 OFFER PINT OF BLOOD EACH FOR WAR USES

One hundred and seventy residents of Adams county are keeping appointments today at the Red Cross blood donor center in the College Lutheran church basement.

A steady stream of men and women and young people filed past the registration desk, the examination points and finally took their places on the rows of 12 white cots where each gave a pint of blood which soon will be in the hands of the Army and Navy on world battlefronts.

Lt. Edward V. Sexton, U.S.N.R., again was in charge of the Red Cross staff of six nurses that came here from Harrisburg in a mobile ambulance truck unit given by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Nurses and Aides

Nurses' aides and registered nurses and local staff leaders were on duty to help care for the donors and to escort them to the special room where canteen committee members served them bouillon, milk, coffee or tea.

Mrs. Henry M. Scharf, chairman of the nurses' aides, was on duty in her yellow Red Cross staff uniform. Mrs. Maurice Weaver, Mrs. Sydney Poppy and Mrs. George T. Rafespenger, local registered nurses who had also served on the first Blood Donor Day here on January 29, were on duty again.

These nurses aides were serving: Mrs. Fred Justin, Mrs. Francis Mason, Mrs. Ira Henderson, Mrs. Pauline Fry and Mrs. Raymond Bisbing. Mrs. Catherine Hartman Clutz, first donor here on January 29, worked as a volunteer page and receptionist this morning.

In the canteen department Mrs. R. S. Saby, Mrs. J. Walter Coleman, Mrs. George W. Boehner and Mrs. John Kaitreider, staff members, served with these helpers: Mrs. G. H. Roth, Mrs. Lawrence Eckert, Mrs. Edgar Hamilton, Mrs. Milton Remmel, Mrs. Joseph Riley, Mrs. John Bachensky, Mrs. George Larkin and Mrs. Joseph Rosensteel.

Directs Work

The women from the Catholic church were in charge of the kitchen today while the Methodist representatives were preparing to take charge on the March visit of the blood donor unit.

G. P. Sheaffer came here from Harrisburg with the unit this morning to act as director until the equipment and staff was organized and in operation when he returned to Harrisburg to open the blood receiving center there at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

The cot section of the basement this morning was screened off from the waiting and examination areas with new screens made by the shop department at the Gettysburg high school under the direction of Elmer H. Schriver. The materials were supplied by the Red Cross.

Jacob Hollabaugh Is Interred Today

Funeral services were held this afternoon from the Bender funeral home for Jacob Hollabaugh, 91, Biglerville, who died Monday afternoon from a complication of diseases. The Rev. H. W. Sternat officiated.

The pallbearers were Charles Myers, Robert Walter, Roy Diehl, Charles Yost, Carrol Carbaugh and John Vandyke.

Allied Airmen Blast Roads And Railroads Deep In Rear Of Foe

By DANIEL DE LUCE

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, Feb. 25 (AP)—Gen. Sir Harold Alexander, British commander of Allied ground forces, today swung his American, French and British troops into a fierce counteroffensive in Central Tunisia where they were shaking loose the last grip of Marshal Erwin Rommel's crippled columns on strategic Kasserine Pass and menacing two other strong points at Sbeitla and Ousseltia to the northeast.

Combining a three-pronged attack in the north with armored car advances by the British Eighth Army into the outpost area of the Mareth line in the south, Alexander had the enemy in trouble on two fronts.

Blast Vital Points In Rear

As British and American troops swarmed into the Kasserine Pass near the Algerian border for mopping up operations, the strong American and Royal Air Forces spread their assault deep into the enemy's rear, blasting airdromes, roads, railways, and strafing troops, vehicles and gunposts.

As Rommel retreated he again was leaving Italian infantry behind as a rearguard, as he did in Egypt, and hundreds of crack Italian infantry and mountain troops were taken prisoner.

Unable to bring up sufficient reinforcements because of a blistering barrage of bombs and machine-gun fire from the air, the Axis chieftain appeared unable to hold the vital Kasserine Pass, 130 miles southwest of Tunis, which he had used to strike northward at the Allied communication system.

At last reports there was fighting in the pass itself.

No Axis troops are left on the west side of the pass, a competent source said, and he added that overnight an Axis salient approximately eight miles long had been wiped out.

German gunners also were hard put to stave off the British advance charge penetrating another gap east of Sbeitla, which is 30 miles northeast of Kasserine, and threatening Sbeitla, 18 miles northeast of Kasserine.

French Active

French troops, rallying from the mountains on the west side of the Ousseltia valley, about 70 miles northeast of Kasserine, cleaned up one Axis pocket after another that had been left by an Axis thrust a few days ago, perhaps presaging another determined Allied drive in that sector.

Today's Allied headquarters communique said a number of Italians, left as rearguards to protect the German withdrawal, were taken prisoner.

Meanwhile, the communique for the first time included mention of ground activity by Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's Eighth Army in the southern sector, and said his armored cars were engaged in active patrol east of the Mareth line.

Elect Officers Today

The new board now comprises Messrs. Sherman (president), Oyer, Codori, Roy P. Funkhouser, Joseph Rosensteel, A. E. Hutchison, Vernon Corle, Dr. J. Walter Coleman and Edmund W. Thomas. The board was scheduled to meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon to elect officers.

Mr. Sherman reported a balance in the treasury from last year of $118.72 with $550 in 1943 paid-up memberships. He also reported that the Chamber had 1,000 auto license advertising plates and approximately 20,000 folders on hand.

The president was directed to appoint a committee to call on Captain John R. Coshey, commanding officer of the Air Corps mechanics school at Gettysburg college, to extend greetings of the community to the administrative and executive staff and the 550 students who will comprise the personnel of the school and "offer the services of the Chamber" to the "best advantage of the new school."

President Sherman appointed Dr. J. Walter Coleman, Henry Garvin, Vernon Coyle and Paul L. Roy to serve with the president on the committee.

Doctor Coleman and George M. Zerfing were appointed to the auditing committee to audit the books of the Chamber.

President Sherman expressed his appreciation and thanks for the cooperation and service rendered his administration by the members last year.

CAPT. JOHN R. COSHEY

275 Air Corps Men To Arrive Here On Monday

Everything is in readiness at Gettysburg college to receive the first contingent of 275 Army Air Corps trainees on Monday, Captain John R. Coshey, commanding officer of the school, announced today.

The exact time of the arrival of the men is not known. It is believed they will arrive by train. Whether they will arrive via Western Maryland or the Reading road is not known.

Equipment, in addition to that furnished by the college, for the housing of the men has been shipped here from Indiantown Gap and all other necessary equipment is either here or on the way, Captain Coshey said.

The first contingent will be fed at Huber Hall, the Women's Division building, by the college. Coeds will be transferred to various fraternities for their meals.

This arrangement will continue until the second contingent of 275 men arrives April 1st. At that time other arrangements will be made to feed the 550 men where facilities will be adequate to handle such a large group three times daily.

Air Corps headquarters for the school have been set up on the second floor of Gladfelter hall.

Captain Daby, of the Inspector General's office, inspected the local facilities on Tuesday. He will make two additional inspections within the next month.

WAR BENEFIT PARTY MARCH 3

The Woman's Club of Gettysburg will sponsor a benefit card party for war relief including the Red Cross war fund drive and the USO Wednesday, March 3rd at 2 p. m. in the Odd Fellows hall, Chambersburg street. All proceeds will be turned over to war relief with the two mentioned organizations sharing in the proceeds.

Tickets will be available at fifty cents each prior to the party and also at the door to the hall on the day of the party.

Bridge, 500 and pinocle will be played.

The committee in charge includes: Mrs. Raymond F. Sheely, chairman, Mrs. Wilbur Plank, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. Richard Brown, Mrs. Samuel Reed, Mrs. Thomas L. Cline, Mrs. C. H. Heldt and Mrs. C. H. Johnson.

The public is invited to attend the party to help swell the proceeds for the war relief work.

Robert Hand Goes To Marine School

Robert Hand, son of Mrs. Marie Hand, 1 Steinwehr avenue, has been ordered to active duty with the U.S. Marines. He will go to the Officers' Candidate School at Parris Island, South Carolina, on March 11. Hand, a graduate of Gettysburg high school, was graduated from Catawba college, North Carolina, on January 23.

GOVERNOR WILL SPEAK HERE ON MEMORIAL DAY

Governor Edward Martin will be the Memorial Day speaker in Gettysburg this year, it was announced today by members of the Sons of Veterans' committee in charge of arrangements for the annual observance.

As commander of the 28th Division, Governor Martin delivered the Memorial address here in 1941.

A letter received here this morning from the governor stated that he will accept the invitation to come to Gettysburg to deliver the annual address from the National cemetery rostrum.

The committee said there has not been a final decision on the day on which the celebration will be held but that it probably will be arranged for Monday, May 31, because May 30 falls on a Sunday this year.

Memorial Committee

Details of the program and other arrangements for the exercises will be planned at future meetings of the local committee.

The committee, which recently conducted its organization session, includes: George N. Coshun, commander of the local Sons of Veterans' camp, chairman; C. Arthur Brame, American Legion post commander, first vice chairman; George Rightmyer, commander of the local camp of the Spanish War veterans, second vice chairman; William L. Meals, Esq., secretary; J. E. Snyder, treasurer; David E. Tawney, George P. Black, W. Preston Hull, Harry G. Deatrick, William I. Shields, Burgess Fred G. Pfeffer, Arthur W. Warman, Harry E. Koch, Arthur H. Shields, and Charles Cook.

DR. QUILLIAN SPEAKS BEFORE WOMAN'S CLUB

Dr. William Quillian, head of the department of philosophy at Gettysburg college, was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Woman's Club of Gettysburg Wednesday afternoon at the YWCA.

Doctor Quillian said the Church and the Christian people of Germany and the occupied countries have not given up hope and a sense of Christian fellowship. He described the means the German government used to take control of the church in Germany by proposing the union of all faiths in the "Great German Christian Church." He said similar steps were taken in Norway after German occupation but that the ministers refused to comply and 1,100 of them were jailed.

The speaker also described church-state relations in the Netherlands and France and told of observations he made in that connection on trips to Europe in 1937 and 1938. Doctor Quillian was introduced by Mrs. A. H. Barr, president of the club.

Bond Sales

War bond and stamp sales at Wednesday's meeting totaled $552.05, it was announced.

Mrs. Frank Kramer announced that she has copies of the Declaration of the Federation of the World, discussed at the last meeting of the club, which are now available to members.

Mrs. Ralph Z. Oyer, chairman of the consumers' interests committee, called for volunteers to attend the meeting to be held Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the court house. The volunteers will be instructed in the point rationing of food which they in turn will explain to patrons in the local grocery stores next week.

Change Salute

In line with action taken by Congress last December, the club decided to give the flag salute without extending the right arm in the future. (Please Turn to Page 2)

Hitler Aims To Crush Peoples In Downfall Of Satanic Career

By GLENN BABB

A period of ever deeper horror and suffering is promised Europe by Adolf Hitler. In his proclamation yesterday to his Nazi old guard he put into words the threat the world knew was impending, an outline of the tragic times through which his own people and their neighbors must pass before his satanic career is ended.

It was the declaration of a desperate, cornered man, a deadly dangerous man. That is its first meaning for the powers leagued for his destruction. They must be on guard for something supremely bold, audacious, unscrupulous, something like Rommel's recent lightning stroke in Tunisia magnified ten or fifty fold in scope and significance. Hitler gave expression to his determination that if he must fall he will carry with him as great a part of humanity as he can.

Reign of Terror

He chooses to call what he proposes to put into effect "the mobilization of the spiritual and material values of Europe such as our continent has not seen in its history of several thousand years." But his satellites, the peoples he has conquered, even the neutrals will know what a regime of compulsory labor, Gestapo rule, firing squads, forced military service this portends.

In his present plight, beset by the Russians on the east, watching the growing strength of the Allies in north Africa, seeking desperately for an opening for a blow that will better his chances of survival, Hitler must be eyeing the two ends of the Mediterranean. Especially he must have been looking in recent months at its western entrance, which his legions could reach in a few days march over the territory of an avowed friend.

Strike Through Spain
A bold stroke there might nullify at once most of the advantage the United Nations have gathered by their occupation of north Africa, might even bring them to disaster. With Gibraltar in his hands, or even with his guns and planes based on the nearby Spanish shore, he might be in a position to isolate General Eisenhower's whole command. That possibility, however, is less frightening to the Allies today than it was two days ago, since Rommel's thrust, which might have carried to the Algerian coast, has been turned back.

Nevertheless the Spanish adventure would be altogether in character, ruthless, treacherous, promising such glittering rewards. Already there have been reports, thus far unconfirmed, of German troops moving down through France toward Spain's Pyrenees border. Hitler's assertion, made twice in yesterday's proclamation, that he is with his armies in the east, may be good reason to believe that he is elsewhere connecting the next stroke.

Clear to Allies

But the danger of a Nazi thrust through Spain has long been clear to the Allied command and doubtless was taken into account in the preparation of the African enterprise. It is obvious that not all the nearly 500,000 fighting men that Prime Minister Churchill disclosed had been landed in northwest Africa are engaged in Tunisia.

TO DEDICATE 3 FLAGS SUNDAY

A special service of dedication of flags will be held at St. Mark's Evangelical Reformed church, Baltimore pike, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A Christian flag is being presented to the church by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel V. Shull in memory of their son. A United States flag is being presented by the Men's Bible class of the church school. Miss L. Blanche Benner is presenting the service flag of six stars in honor of her nephews in the service of their country.

The Rev. Howard Schley Fox, pastor, will dedicate the flags. Addresses will be made by the Rev. Albert E. Shenberg, a former pastor and Judge W. C. Sheely, judge of the Adams-Fulton courts. Dr. Frederick Tilberg will be the guest soloist. Messrs. Clarence Nuss and William Swisher will play a violin duet.

The following young men from the congregation are in the service of their country: Technician G. Charles R. Benner, Pvt. Donald R. Benner, Seaman Burnell C. Feeser, Seaman Evan L. Feeser, Cpl. Amos King and Pvt. Charles A. Snyder.

The public is invited to the service.

CONTINUE SERVICES

Evangelistic services will continue each evening for the remainder of the week at 7:45 o'clock at the Mt. Taber United Brethren church.

Special Services To Be Continued

"Prepare to Meet Thy God" will be the theme of the sermon to be delivered by the Rev. J. Herman Alexander, Charlotte, North Carolina, at the evangelistic service this evening at the Poursquare Gospel church. Services will continue indefinitely.

Sermon topics for additional services follow: Friday, "Divine Healing"; Saturday, "God in the Hands of a Man"; Sunday morning, "Pit Digging," and Sunday evening, "Not Saved."

The Rev. James Estar will play violin selections at each service and the Rev. Mr. Alexander will render vocal selections.

High Alumni Unit Elects Treasurer

Miss Jeanne Shoop was named treasurer of the Gettysburg High School Alumni association to serve out the unexpired term of the late Miss Selma Fissel at a meeting of the Alumni Council Wednesday evening at the YWCA. President, Robert D. Fidler, presided.

The treasurer was authorized to dispose of old U.S. Treasury bonds owned by the association and invest the money in U.S. War Bonds.

A number of vacancies in the list of class representatives were announced and appointments were made to fill two of the posts. Mrs. Edna Zinkand Hartzell was named as the new representative for the class of 1917 and Mrs. Edith Fissel Baker was chosen for the class of 1936.

The group discussed plans for the annual banquet at the end of the current school year and other activities which might be substituted for the banquet this year. President Fidler soon will announce banquet and social committees to study the matter and make a report at the next meeting of the council.

Rifle Shot Lodges In Youth's Head

Reading, Pa., Feb. 25 (AP)—Herbert Snyder, a 14-year-old high school student, was reported in a fair condition at St. Joseph's hospital today despite serious injuries to his face when he was accidentally shot yesterday by a companion.

Hospital authorities said no definite statement could be given on the youth's condition until he was visited later in the morning by his personal physician, but improvement was noted during the night.

City Detective Frank Harak said the bullet, which entered the left side of Snyder's face, tore through the roof of his mouth and lodged somewhere in his head, was fired from a 22 calibre rifle in the hands of 15-year-old Claude Wentzel. Harak said Wentzel was preparing to oil the gun when the shell, which had failed to explode on five previous occasions, went off.

Wedding

Heist-Rickrode

Miss Lucille Rickrode, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Rickrode, Pleasant street, New Oxford, and Donald L. Heist, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Heist, Hanover, were married Saturday evening at 7 o'clock in St. Paul's Reformed church, Westminster, Maryland.

The single ring ceremony of the Reformed church was performed by the pastor, the Rev. J. Edmund Lippy. They were attended by Miss Ethel Thomas, New Oxford, and Fred Hanson, Hanover.

The newlyweds have begun housekeeping in a newly-furnished apartment in Hanover.

DEATHS

Louis Eline

Louis Eline, 82, of McSherrystown, died at his home Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Mr. Eline had been ill for a number of weeks and had been confined to his bed for the past three, and his death was attributed to complications of advanced years.

He was a son of the late Ambrose and Cecilia Hilt Eline. He was twice married, his first wife, the former Mary Daugherty, and his second wife, Suzanne Shildt, both preceded him in death. Mr. Eline was a native of McSherrystown and spent his entire life there. He had been actively engaged in gardening until his retirement recently.

Surviving are the following children: L. Ambrose, Peter, George, Joseph P., Paul J., Benjamin H., and Miss Suzanne Eline, Mrs. Helen Miller, and Mrs. Emma Bunty, all of McSherrystown; 27 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. The funeral services will be held at his late home at 8:30 a. m., Saturday morning. A high requiem mass will be conducted in St. Mary's Catholic church, McSherrystown, at 9 o'clock. The rector, Rt. Rev. Msgr. Patrick F. McGee, will be the celebrant. Interment will be made in St. Mary's cemetery, McSherrystown.

H. J. S. Zeigler

Harry J. S. Zeigler, 51, Littlestown R. D., general express and freight agent at Littlestown, died Wednesday morning at 6:30 o'clock in a Baltimore hospital. Mr. Zeigler was a son of the late Aaron and Elinda Willis Zeigler, and for approximately thirty years had been employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad company.

Surviving are his wife, who before marriage was Mabel White; three sons, Glenn, Kenneth and Carl Zeigler, Littlestown; four sisters, Mrs. William C. Wilt, New Cumberland; Mrs. Edith Pfisterer, Goldsboro; Mrs. A. C. Fortenbaugh, Dover R. D., and Mrs. O. B. Blair, Wrightsville, and two brothers, A. Zeigler, Goldsboro, and F. W. Zeigler, Manchester, Pa.

Funeral Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the J. W. Little & Son funeral home, Maple avenue, Littlestown, with the Rev. David S. Kammerer, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Littlestown, officiating. Interment in the Paddletown cemetery, near Newberrytown.

Friends may call at the Little funeral home, Friday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Lila Reinecker

Mrs. Lila Reinecker, 67, widow of J. Calvin Reinecker, died Tuesday in Harrisburg from a complication of diseases.

She was born in Adams county, a daughter of the late Oliver and Elizabeth (Wally) Currens. The deceased was a member of the Gettysburg Presbyterian church. Her husband died April 14, 1941.

Surviving are four children, Mrs. Grace Kennedy, Philadelphia; Mrs. Harold Roche, Arlington, Virginia; Lester B. Reinecker and Earl C. Reinecker, both of York, and one sister, Mrs. Emory Settle, also of York.

Funeral services from the Bender funeral home Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock conducted by the Rev. Harry S. Ecker. Interment in Evergreen cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home this evening after 7 o'clock.

Congressmen Have Own Ration Board

Washington, Feb. 25 (AP)—The story of a semi-secret, super-service special ration board—set up to supply the Congressmen with tires and gasoline—today had Washington wondering whether another row like last summer's X-card storm was in the wind.

Eyes unquestionably were on the voters back home as the solemnly pondered yesterday's acknowledgment by the Office of Price Administration that an unlisted and unpublicized "Congressional service" quick-action ration board existed to handle gas and tire requests of Senators and Representatives only.

The Congressmen had little to say, but capital speculation over the probably reaction was reminiscent of last June when protests from all over the nation flooded Washington in the wake of the news that many legislators had been granted the old unlimited gas ration X-cards.

AGED COUNTIANS APPRECIATE RED CROSS SERVICES

An aged Adams county couple—the wife an invalid and the husband unable to work—are staunch friends of the Red Cross because of what the Red Cross did for them when one of their two sons who are in the Army was stricken critically ill in a camp hospital in Utah last month.

Seven telegrams, four air mail letters and a dozen telephone calls between the Red Cross office here and Littlestown brought the anxious couple word of the critical illness of their son, assured them that he was receiving every care, and then when eventual improvement and recovery came, told the aged couple that good news.

On January 20 a telegram was received from the camp hospital to the mother telling her that her son, a private who joined the service with his brother last November, was critically ill.

Kept Fully Informed

Two days later a telegram arrived at the Red Cross office here telling of the diagnosis of the illness as a dangerous ailment and described the son's condition as "remaining critical." That word was dispatched to the parents, via telephone and Red Cross workers in Littlestown.

Then the Red Cross here telegraphed the parents' situation and urging the parents situation and urging frequent reports on the boy's condition.

The answers came regularly, some in the day time and some at midnight, but always they received prompt attention. By January 28 a message arrived telling of improvement in the youth's condition; the next message told of continued improvement and on February 5 the hospital said the boy was no longer critically ill.

Next came a letter from the field director at the camp stating the boy had been interviewed in the hospital ward where he was found in good spirits. He told the Red Cross they did not need to send further reports on his condition because he had already written his first letter home.

Many Services

The youth's illness was not the first contact the Red Cross here had with the family. After the two boys went into the Army last fall, Red Cross workers arranged for the parents' allotments from their sons' pay and for government allowance for the old couple.

That case is typical of the hundreds in the rapidly expanding service files of the Red Cross office here. Last year 250 such cases were handled through the Adams county chapter office. There were 67 in December, 57 in January and this month promises to set a new record as the number of county men in the service increases constantly.

GANGSTERS IN BLACK MARKETS

Philadelphia, Feb. 25 (AP)—Gangsters, "smart money boys" and other persons without regard for the nation's health have invaded black markets in meat in an effort "to turn an easy dollar," George A. Casey, president of the National Independent Meat Packers' association, declared today.

Elaborating on his complaints to a Senate agricultural committee that friction between government agencies is responsible for black market sales of "diseased meat," Casey told newsmen that packers are "very much disturbed over the possibilities of sickness and disease that might follow the sales."

Casey estimated that since last November about 2,000,000 pounds of black market meat found their way into retail markets in the Philadelphia metropolitan area where, he said, the illegal traffic is widespread and on the increase.

Chairman Smith (D-SC) announced in Washington yesterday that his Senate agriculture subcommittee would hold a public meeting Tuesday to hear Casey's charges, made in a statement, that a production-discouraging price squeeze had resulted from "a conflict of news" between Secretary of Agriculture Wickard and the office of price administration.

Novena Crusade To End War In '43

Chicago, Feb. 25 (AP)—A hemispheric crusade, dedicated to winning the war in 1943 will be launched on March 12 in more than 1,100 Roman Catholic churches.

The Rev. Terence A. Seery, O.S.M., national director of the novena to our Sorrowful Mother, said today the crusade will begin in churches where the novena is conducted each Friday, 1,919 in the United States and 156 outside the country.

London, Feb. 25 (AP)—Home Secretary Herbert Morrison announced today in the House of Commons that "double summer time" will be inaugurated in the United Kingdom April 4 and will continue until Aug. 15. (Double summer time in Britain is six hours ahead of eastern war time.)

Upper Communities

R. P. Wentz has been ill at his home in Biglerville for some time.

Mrs. Claude Miller, of Biglerville, is spending the week in Harrisburg where she is attending an Army Aircraft Warning Service Ground Observers school to become a recognition officer. Upon her return she will instruct the local observers in the identification of aircraft.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eckert entertained recently at their home at Guernsey their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoover and Mr. Hoover's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoover, all of Lewisburg. Mrs. Robert Hoover will arrive the early part of next week to make her home with her parents, her husband having been inducted into the army this week.

Ronald Baltzley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther S. Baltzley, Gettysburg R. D., who was inducted into the army several weeks ago, is now stationed with the Army Air Corps at Miami, Florida.

Mrs. Freeman Weigle and Mrs. Clair Taylor and daughter, Jean, Biglerville R. D., visited in York, Wednesday.

L. M. Shillito, Camp Hood, Texas, has concluded a short visit with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Shillito, Biglerville.

Files Claim In Damage Action

A statement of claim in a year-old damage suit by Daniel W. Shank, York Springs R. 2, against Ella Spertzel, Gardeners R. 2, has been filed at the office of Prothonotary Lee M. Hartman by Richard A. Brown, Esq., as counsel for Mr. Shank.

The suit is a result of an accident which occurred February 5, 1942, a mile north of Biglerville on the Carlisle highway and asks damages to cover medical expenses, damage to Shank's car and an allowance for pain and suffering.

Earlier this week Earl Starner, Ella Spertzel Starner and Nellie Gerber filed a statement of claim in a suit they opened last September against Shank as a result of the same accident.

MARRIED MEN WITH KIDDIES ARE DEFERRED

Harrisburg, Feb. 25 (AP)—"A large pool" of Pennsylvania men who have wives but no children will defer temporarily the induction into military service of married men with children, state Selective Service headquarters said today.

Col. Benjamin F. Evans, acting director, said the length of the postponement can not be determined until the size of future calls for men from the state is known.

Start In March

Evans said registrants with wives only will be drafted in increasingly large numbers next month since "by March, we will have exhausted virtually all single men." The March quotas will consist mostly of men who married at a time when their selection was not imminent and who maintain bona fide family relationships with wives only.

Except for scattered cases still being processed or under appeal, Evans explained, Pennsylvania's 422 local boards have taken or rejected almost all of the 18 and 19-year-olds who registered last December. After that manpower enrollment, Selective Service headquarters announced that 40,566 youths had registered for possible military service.

The director asserted married men with children will not be called "until further orders from national headquarters."

New Appointments Bring Opposition

Washington, Feb. 25 (AP)—Three Republican Senators today assailed the nomination of former Senator Schwartz (D-Wyo.) to the National Mediation board, terming it a "pay off" for New Deal loyalty, while Democratic opposition developed against another Presidential appointment.

Senator Robertson (R-Wyo.), who defeated Schwartz for re-election in November, said he would take the Senate floor to oppose confirmation of "a self-confessed rubber stamp" for President Roosevelt. He declared the Schwartz appointment was a "payment for six years of abject submission."

Chairman Wheeler (D-Mont.) of the Senate Interstate Commerce committee, which approved the nomination earlier in the week, said it was on the Senate calendar for action today.

Sensors Moore (R-Okla.) and Hawkes (R-N. J.) also said they would oppose the Schwartz appointment.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Miroslaw Yersak, Gettysburg airport, announce the birth of a son Wednesday afternoon at the Warner hospital.

Loses Share Of Estate By Hoax

Philadelphia, Feb. 25 (AP)—An accounting in the $4,113,380 estate of Caleb J. Milne, Jr., textile manufacturer, showed today that Milne disinherited his grandson, Caleb Milne, 4th, after the latter confessed a kidnapping hoax in 1935.

The younger Milne disappeared and sent letters to his grandfather for a $20,000 ransom.

The accounting, revealing the size of the manufacturer's estate for the first time, showed that a codicil to the will was filed cutting off the grandson from any inheritance.

Principal heirs are the testator's three children, Caleb J. Milne, 3d, Boston; Warren Milne, Bryn Mawr, Pa., and Mrs. Theodore C. Vorhees, Melrose Park, Pa.

SNOW AND MUD FAIL TO STOP RUSHING REDS

By EDDY GILMORE

Moscow, Feb. 25 (AP)—Soviet troops are sweeping ahead along the entire front in the face of increasing enemy counterattacks and despite deep snows in Orel and Kursk provinces and thick, sticky mud in the Ukraine and the northern Caucasus, field dispatches said today.

The weather had lifted sufficiently, however, to permit the aviation of both sides to increase activity in the southern districts. It was clear enough to allow accurate bombing and numerous aerial dogfights developed.

Heavy Axis Losses

The German airforce was reported throwing its planes into the support of tank and infantry counterattacks west of Rostov, actions which the Russians said they were repelling with heavy loss to the enemy.

The most spectacular land fighting was reported in the area west of Kharkov where the offensive is aimed in a wide sweep bearing on the entire industrial Dnieper river valley, with Poltava and Konotop as the gateways and Kiev, Kremenchug, Dnieperopetrovsk and Zaporozhe as the ultimate goals.

In the last 24 hours two large towns were taken in that sector, the Russians announced, as the Red army smashed through enemy screening forces. The towns were not identified.

Point-Blank Fire

Izvestia, the government newspaper, reported in a dispatch from the Ukraine that the Germans had mustered fresh reserves to fill the gaps in their regiments and to man tanks in counter-assaults, but that the Red army artillery smashed the Germans' armor with point-blank fire from open gun positions. German mobile units were dispersed and their trucks were wrecked, Izvestia said.

Pravda, the Communist party organ, told of a dogged advance by Soviet units through deep snow as the flanks north of Kursk were brought nearer to the strongpoint at Orel.

Heavy enemy counterattacks continued in the Donets basin, especially southwest of Voroshilovgrad and north of Stalino but here again the Russian offensive pushed forward, it was declared.

Objector Fast As Gandhi Sympathizer

Campton, N. H., Feb. 25 (AP)—A conscientious objector today kept pace with Mohandas K. Gandhi in the Indian leader's 21-day fast.

Corbett Bishop, former West New York, N. J., bookseller began his fast 16 days ago, at the same time Gandhi did, Carleton Mabey, in charge of the West Campton conscientious objector camp, told reporters in response to their inquiries. "He is fasting in sympathy with Gandhi," Mabey said.

Although Gandhi is reported taking citrus juices and water, Bishop is restricting himself to water alone. Mabey added. He said Bishop had lost some weight, but that he continued to carry on his camp duties which include the cleaning of buildings.

The objector has the care of a nurse regularly assigned to the camp. A local physician also is following the case.

LEGION MEETING

The first regular meeting of the Albert J. Lentz post No. 202 of the American Legion will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Legion building. Oysters will be served after the meeting, it is announced on notices issued by Adjutant Paul M. Rohrbaugh. "This may be the last big feed until Victory," the notices state.

HOSPITAL REPORT

Mrs. Donald Walter, Gettysburg R. 2; Mrs. Floyd Moritz, Gettysburg R. 3; Mrs. Miroslaw Yersak, Gettysburg airport, and Mrs. Isaac Rife, Goldenville, have been admitted as patients to the Warner hospital. Mrs. Elmer Gastley and infant son, Glenn Rodney, Baltimore street, have been discharged.

See Possibility Of Nurse Rationing

Berkeley, Calif., Feb. 25 (AP)—Hospital rationing may be just around the corner and business men and women soon may be called upon to volunteer as orderlies to provide reasonable care for the sick.

These possibilities were advanced by nationally-known authorities here for a two-day conference of the Hospital Administrators and Trustees Association of California. "Unless 50,000 pupil nurses are taken into training this year," said James A. Hamilton, president of the American Hospital association, in an interview, "it may be necessary to ration nursing care on the basis of Army needs."

Bullets End Losing Streak By Beating Bisons 57-36; Seminarians Lose 39-19

DRACHA LOOPS 17 POINTS TO PACE WINNERS

Rolling up their highest point score of the season, the Gettysburg college basketball team scored its sixth victory of the season Wednesday night and ended a three-game losing streak by walloping Bucknell here before a slim crowd 57-36.

After a close first period the Bullets attack began to function and midway in the third period there was little doubt as to the ultimate outcome.

George Dracha topped the scorers for the evening by dropping seven goals and a trio of fouls through the hoop. Cy Davis, freshman forward, connected for 12 tallies while Fornewald, Bison center, was outstanding for the visitors with 13 points.

Culbertson opened the scoring soon after the game started with a one-handed shot. Haas netted a long shot and Parnell put the Bullets ahead with an over-head shot. Bucknell grabbed the lead on a pair of goals by Burns and the score was knotted at 6-6 on Parnell's long throw. A short toss by Haas and long side chuck by Trimmer enabled the Bullets to lead 10-8 at the quarter.

Force Ahead
Trimmer, Haas, Dracha and Kane put the Bream-men out in front 19-11 midway in the second quarter but goals by Fornewald and Culbertson kept the Bisons in the running. Kane and Davis tallied goals and Gettysburg led 25-18 at the half when Davis and Freedman looped fouls before the half ended.

The Bullets gradually began to pull away from their rivals in the third quarter. Paced by Dracha, Haas and Davis, Gettysburg took a 34-22 advantage after less than three minutes of play had elapsed. Ending the round's scoring, Dracha landed three field goals, two of them long chucks and a foul, to give the Bullets a 45-30 lead.

Bucknell fought gamely in the last period but the Bullets kept up their steady attack to win easily.

The same teams will clash at Lewisburg Saturday evening.

Seminary Scrapy
Supported by a peppy rooting section, the Lutheran Theological seminary quintet put up a scrapy game in the first half only to weaken in the last two periods to drop a 39-19 decision to the jayvees in the preliminary game.

After the seminarians had held their opponents to a 14-10 score at half time, the collegians solved their opponents' defense to score a one-sided victory. Tommy Cline played a nice game for the winners.

Little Rock Buys Oklahoma City Team

Little Rock, Ark., Feb. 25 (AP)—Fifteen players from the abandoned Texas league, including the entire 12-man roster of the Oklahoma City team, have been purchased by Little Rock of the Southern association.

The Little Rock management announced the acquisition of the Oklahoma City squad last night only a few hours after it bought three players from Fort Worth.

The average fat has a content of about 10 per cent glycerine.

Cage Number 22 Is In Retirement

San Diego, Calif., Feb. 25 (AP)—Milton (Milky) Phelps' basketball Number 22 — has joined Red Grange's 77 and Tom Harmon's 98, of the gridiron, in permanent retirement.

Phelps, twice achieving national fame in his cage career with San Diego State college, was killed in a plane crash at the Corpus Christi, Tex., Naval Station last November.

Yesterday the college student council voted to retire the number under which Phelps scored 1,043 points—the college record—in four years.

Two Track Stars Entered In Relays

Chicago, Feb. 25 (AP)—The field of outstanding track performers to compete in the seventh annual Chicago relays next month was augmented today by the entry of Jim Herbert of New York and Les Eisenhart, former Ohio State university track captain.

Herbert is a two-time winner of the relays 600 yard run, in 1933 and 1941, while Eisenhart will seek victory in the 1,000 yard race, in which event he placed second in 1941. Herbert's mark of 1:11.1 in both times he won the event stands as a record.

Bradford Is Out Of Pony League With Our Service Men

Bradford, Pa., Feb. 25 (AP)—Mayor U. J. Ryan's announcement that the Boston Braves had decided to suspend their Class D franchise here until Victory game baseball fans little hope of seeing a Bradford entry in the Pony league this summer for the first time since the circuit started in 1939.

The mayor said John J. Quinn, secretary-treasurer of the National league club and president of the Bradford Bees, wrote him yesterday of the suspension and attributed the decision to a shortage of players. Other clubs in the league are Olean, Wellsville, Batavia, Lockport, Jamestown and Hornell, all in New York and Hamilton, Ont.

FOLDING MONEY WORRIES CAGE TOURNEY CHIEF

By ROMNEY WHEELER
Louisville, Ky., Feb. 25 (AP)—You'd never expect a business manager to wail about too much money—but that's the plight of S. P. Boles, who's running the Southeastern Conference basketball tournament, starting here today.

To put it short, and alliteratively: Boles is burdened by big bills. "I never saw so much folding money," says the veteran University of Kentucky business manager. "We can't keep enough one-dollar bills on hand to make change. People buying season tickets for the tournament plank down tens and twenties, and even fifties until we're hard-pressed to keep up with them."

Demand for Tickets
"We played to 18,000 people last year in the Conference tournament—and we've sold twice as many season tickets in advance this year. I guess it's due to war wages around Louisville. People have money, and they have it in big bills. They can't travel, so they're looking for amusement at home."

The tournament, with Kentucky, Tennessee and Louisiana State among the favorites, opens with L. S. U. meeting Auburn.

Based on last year's attendance, the tournament this year may draw in excess of 20,000 for its three-day stand, and possibly 24,000.

PREXIES WANT TOURNEY GAMES

Pittsburgh, Feb. 25 (AP)—Adam Sanders, coach of the fast-stepping Washington & Jefferson five, says his team would welcome a chance for post-season laurels in either the New York Metropolitan or the NCAA basketball tournament.

The Prexies are one of 15 eastern teams being considered for competition in the National Collegiate Invitation tournament at Madison Square Garden, New York, next month.

They defeated Carnegie Tech, 49 to 33, here last night for their ninth straight victory and their thirteenth in sixteen games.

The tall, bespectacled mentor believes the team's four remaining foes—Westminster, Bethany, Waynesburg and Duquesne—have been weakened through loss of players to the armed forces.

He says his own squad likely will remain intact for the balance of the season. Two of his stars, the Forger twins—Ray and Ralph—enrolled recently in the Army Air Corps but Sanders thinks it unlikely they'll be called for a while. Huck Hartman, flashy center, is nearly six feet, eight inches tall—too high for Uncle Sam's requirements.

Kerch is called Russia's Pompeii because of its many tombs and relics.

BUCKY HARRIS WILL MANAGE PHILLY TEAM

By TED MEIER
Philadelphia, Feb. 25 (AP)—Stanley (Bucky) Harris, newly appointed manager of the Philadelphia Phils, was assured today of a free hand in all managerial duties—except in spring training.

The Phils' new owner, William D. Cox, announced Harris' appointment yesterday and later said he had "asked" the former Washington Senators' mentor to try "my training system"—which he called "the commando type." Harris commented, "I'm willing to give it a try."

The veteran major leaguer's first official act after his appointment was to confer with 61-year-old Hans Lobert, his predecessor, who late yesterday accepted a coaching job with the Cincinnati Reds.

Harris also officially retained Chuck Klein as player-coach.

Cox meanwhile told reporters that his training system will combine running and calisthenics.

Hardy Players

"The baseball trainer today usually means in the accepted sense a slap-slap guy or a rubber," said the 33-year-old former NYU and Yale trackman. "My plans call for a commando-type training that will bring the team up to the first game so tough they can run the bases without drawing a hard breath."

He said he has in mind a trainer to put the system into effect, but added that that did not necessarily mean that Leo (Red) Miller, Phils trainer for 10 years, will be dismissed.

He did not reveal the terms of his contract with Harris, a free agent since he resigned as Washington manager last September 26. Harris, now 46, was called the "boy wonder manager" when, at 27, he guided the Senators to the world championship in 1924.

Also a former manager of Detroit and the Boston Red Sox, Harris began his professional career in 1915 at Pittston, Pa., and has been in the major leagues since 1919. He is married and has three children.

MAP BILL TO EXEMPT DADS

Washington, Feb. 25 (AP)—A bill to exempt all fathers from military service was whipped into shape today as its sponsor called for the transfer of able-bodied Army men "from desks to fields of action" and their replacement by men of from 38 to 45.

Proposing that Selective Service officials turn to bachelors and childless husbands up to 45 rather than "break up homes where there are young children," Senator Wheeler (D-Mont.) asserted it could be done by weeding out husky youths "doing routine office jobs for the Army."

Wheeler's measure would provide a blanket exemption for all fathers married prior to Pearl Harbor and living with their families.

The induction of men from 38 to 45 was halted some months ago on the complaint of the Army that older men could not stand the rigors of training. Authority exists to resume induction of men above 37 without further legislation.

More than 90 per cent of American shipyard workers had to be trained for their present jobs.

JAP SHIPPING POUNDED HARD IN NEW BLOWS

Allied Headquarters in Australia, Feb. 25 (AP)—General Douglas MacArthur's bomber and fighter planes dealt heavy punishment to Japanese shipping in the New Britain area and delivered smashing blows at enemy land forces in New Guinea yesterday, an announcement from Allied headquarters said today.

Coupled with dispatches from the front, the bulletin included these results achieved by the Allied airmen:

American Flying Fortresses forced a Japanese warship to run aground off Cape Gazelle in New Britain.

A four-motored Liberator on a reconnaissance mission found itself ringed by 13 Japanese Zeros near Opan Bay on the west coast of New Britain, but fought its way out of the hole, shot down four Zeros in flames and returned to base safely.

Heavy bombers roared back over Rabaul harbor before dawn and scored a direct hit "from an extremely low altitude" on a 10,000-ton cargo vessel, and near hits on two small enemy warships.

The town and harbor of Babo, and the town of Kaukenau, on the northwest coast of New Guinea, were bombed. Airdromes at Madang, and at Mahalang in the Lae area of New Guinea, the villages of Angari and Yanga, and Lae itself felt the weight of 500-pound and half-ton bombs, which started raging fires. Attack planes bombed and strafed Japanese ground forces in the Mubo area of New Guinea, south of the enemy base at Salamaua.

A dispatch from the front said that ground activity in the Wau-Mubo sector was light but the Japanese troops were given no rest as Allied planes probed for supply and ammunition dumps in villages and jungles and followed up their bombs with sprays of machine-gun fire.

WILLIAMS VS. SPEARY

Philadelphia, Feb. 25 (AP)—The Williams of Trenton, New Jersey, has been booked for a 10-round boxing match with Billy Speary of Nanticoke, Pa., at the arena here March 8. Their bout will be a preliminary to one between Maxie Shapiro, New York lightweight, and Johnny Hutchison of Philadelphia.

ELMIRA QUILTS EASTERN LOOP; CLUB FOR SALE

Williamsport, Pa., Feb. 25 (AP)—Interests in Reading, Pa., and Utica, N. Y., were listed today among the potential buyers of the Elmira, N. Y., franchise in the Class A Eastern baseball league after Johnny Ogden, financially troubled Elmira owner, announced he was surrendering his rights.

Tommy Richardson, league president, disclosed last night that the franchise has been placed in his hands for sale and that he hoped to complete the deal before a league meeting Sunday in New York city. Richardson would not name the asking price, but he said:

3 Groups Interested
"There are three groups interested—Utica, Reading and the group of civic minded citizens that put up the money for Ogden to take over the Elmira franchise two years ago.

"Every consideration will be given to the Elmira group. We hope to get the best price possible."

Richardson said Ogden told him by telephone to go ahead with the sale. Ogden himself, formerly associated with the Philadelphia Phils and the Baltimore Orioles, was not available immediately for comment. He took over the club in 1941 and last season it encountered financial difficulties and reduced attendance.

Clubs in the circuit besides Elmira are Albany and Binghamton, N. Y.; Williamsport, Scranton and Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; Springfield, Mass., and Hartford, Conn.

Utica operated last year in the Canadian-American league.

Two Girls Pace High Rifle Team

Doylestown, Pa., Feb. 25 (AP)—Two girls paced the Doylestown high school's championship rifle team to its fourth consecutive title in the Southeastern Pennsylvania Interscholastic Rifle association yesterday.

The team, undefeated since March, 1939, beat West Philadelphia, 498-491—its 66th straight victory—and both Agnes Baumaster and Jane Frankendorf fired 100.

JOHNNY BARRETT SIGNS

Pittsburgh, Feb. 25 (AP)—Johnny Barrett today became the first of the Pirates' 10 outfielders to enroll for the 1943 season. Barrett, who batted .247 in his major league debut last year, mailed his signed contract from his home in Lawrence, Mass.

Just Folks

By Edgar A. Guest

SNORING HUSBAND

"The day he came a-wooing," says his most devoted wife,
"I used to think 'twould easy by with him to spend my life.
His speech was Oh, so gentle, and so tall and straight was he I never dreamed how terrible he'd some day prove to be.
I never dreamed I'd wake at night to give his ribs a whack, With 'Darling, please turn over—you are sleeping on your back!'"

"When life was all before us and our single path up-hill,
I never dreamed the time would come I'd wish his voice were still,
And when, 'for better or for worse,'
to cling to him I vowed,
I never dreamed so nice a man could make a noise so loud.
Now night long through I elbow him until he's blue and black!
And say: 'Turn over, darling, please!
You're sleeping on your back!'"

"At times it's like a whistle's shriek;
at times a grunt and groan,
And then a buzz saw at a knot, and then a fearful moan!
There comes a second's silence when I think he must be dead,
To find he's merely paused for breath to start full-steam ahead.
And this must last my lifetime through for how can I forsake
This ghastly creature fast asleep who is so nice awake."

Today's Talk

PLANTERS

I wonder if there are many nobler folks than Planters in all this world of ours? And by Planters I do not merely refer to those who put seeds in the ground, but to those who put ideas into people's heads, and who plant bits of themselves in scores of hearts.

That picture by Millet of "The Sower" has always attracted me.
I have a lithograph of it and prize it for its inspirational, as well as artistic value. I believe nothing quite stirs the imagination of the farmer more than that planted field after he has finished.

I thank my noble Father and Mother for planting their ideas of religion within me, for their teachings have happily sustained me through every experience of life thus far—and I am sure will sustain me to the very end.

He who has put himself into a book, has really planted something that posterity can continually go to for seedlings. Few philosophers have had a wider influence than Ralph Waldo Emerson. His son once told that his father would prepare a lecture and then "tried it on," as he said, "on audiences from farm and shop in the lyciums of New England towns or on enterprising uncultivated settlers of the West."
He would not "talk down," but made it his business to try to give them his best thoughts in vigorous simple words, with homely illustration of classic anecdote.

As time has shown, Emerson planted his thoughts in many a fertile soil. So did Thoreau, who probably lived nearer to the fragrant earth than any other American author, at least.

I have referred many times in these talks to a little book that contains all the recorded words that Jesus ever uttered. And what a planting he did in the world! No other person has so influenced the thinking and conduct of human beings—and for their eternal good.

The Planters of the world are the ones who are going to save it, and finally give it a peaceful security.
Things keep growing that are planted—and the results nourish the bodies and souls of all who walk this earth.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Ones Nearest."

Colonial Tea Was Charming Affair: In flawless colonial setting, the sixteenth annual Washington's birthday tea was held Thursday evening at the Battledown Hotel by the Gettysburg chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Over one hundred and sixty-five persons were served, and $100.26 was cleared. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. W. A. Granville, Mrs. J.
Paxton Bigham and Mrs. J. L. Butt;
the receiving committee was Mrs.
W. H. O'Neal, Miss Mary McConaughy, Mrs. S. S. Neely, Mrs. Arthur Griest and Miss Margaret McMillan.
Those who served were Mrs. W. H.
Danforth, Mrs. Charles Drum, Mrs.
G. W. Lefever, Mrs. Frank Peckman and the Misses Mary Musselman, Elizabeth Bigham, Catherine Hartman, Margaret McIlhenny, Martha Neely, Sara Butt, Amelia Butt,
Henrietta Hersh and Ruth Bender.

Wed at Parsonage: Earl Henry Shultz and Isabelle Elizabeth Shultz, both of Franklin township, were married Tuesday evening by the Rev.
D. T. Koser, at the parsonage of the Arendtsville Lutheran church. The couple was attended by John F. Shultz and Mary V. Shultz, both of Franklin township.

Patient Improving: The condition of Henry Bream, well-known athlete at Gettysburg college, who is seriously ill at his home on Broadway with diphtheria, was reported as somewhat improved on Wednesday.

Becomes Piano Tuner: Paul L.
Spangler, of near Gettysburg, has accepted a position as piano tuner with the firm of Charles M. Stieff for their Harrisburg branch.

Senior in Pulpit: Raymond T.
Stamm, member of the senior class at the Lutheran Theological seminary, has been filling the pulpit at the Methodist Episcopal church in the temporary absence of the Rev.
Harry Daniels.

Get Canton Degree: The following
Patriarchs of Union Encampment
No. 126, Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Gettysburg were in York Thursday evening and received the present time Mr. and Mrs. Parr are residing at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

"The Pill Bottle" Drew Big Crowd:
Twenty members of the Senior Christian Endeavor society of St.
James Lutheran church successfully presented the four scene medical missionary play "The Pill Box," to an audience estimated at 225 persons in St. James chapel, Friday evening. A silver offering amounting to $27 was lifted, all of which will be given to missions.

Those who assumed character roles are: Mazie Krout, Erma Krout,

Meals, Beatrice Pfeiffer and Ivan
Stern.

Birthday Event Was Big Success:
The sterling qualities of George Washington were lauded by Dr.
Charles F. Sanders, at a public mass meeting held in the court house Thursday evening. Rev. N. L. Horn delivered a short but emphatic address.

Held under the joint auspices of the Patriotic Order Sons of America and the Independent Order of Americans, the mass meeting, attended by almost 500 persons, was a success from start to finish.

Rev. Earl J. Bowman presided.
An orchestra from the Methodist Episcopal church, under the direction of Edward Dougherty, played several selections. The invocation and benediction were pronounced by Rev. E. H. Hummelbaugh.

Group singing was directed by Miss Lucille Henry. Readings were given by Miss Lily Dougherty, Miss Kathryn Hummelbaugh and Miss Katherine Musser.

The committee in charge of the affair consisted of Robert Geisel-man, C. D. Stallsmith, John Mc-Donnell, Harry Koch, Clayton Hoke and Arthur Baker.

U. S. Employees Shiver Under Five Draft Probing

SEEK REASONS WHY 1 MILLION AREN'T DRAFTED

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

Washington, Feb. 25 (AP)—Uncle Sam's estimated 3,000,000 civilian employees blinked today in the spotlight of investigations projected by five House committees, one of which branched out to take in all draft deferments granted by local boards.
The Dies committee, the Appropriations, Civil Service, Naval Affairs, and the Military Affairs committees mapped plans to find out what government works are doing, with a special view to determining the need for their services, their loyalty to the government and the reasons an estimated 1,000,000 of them aren't in Army or Navy uniforms.

In a house broadcast last night,
Chairman Dies (D-Tex.) of the committee investigating un-American activities pledged his group to tackle with renewed vigor its assignment to rid the government payroll of all persons harboring subversive sentiments.

A special appropriations subcommittee is warming up for an investigation of complaints of un-Americanism against federal employees with a view to determining whether they should be discharged. Members said first attention probably would be given to approximately 40 employees whose loyalty has been questioned by Dies.

A third committee, the Civil Service group headed by Rep. Ransp-er (D-Ga.), expects to get into high gear shortly with its study of government personnel, the aim being to determine whether there is too much overlapping of effort and too much wasting of energy which better could be expended in the war effort.

Probe Deferred Men

Following an organization meeting yesterday, Rep. Costello (D-Calif.), who is directing the military affairs study, said his group's investigation would not be limited to government workers alone but would be broadened to take in all deferred men, regardless of by whom employed.

"We intend to see just what practices have been followed in granting and seeking deferments in industry and private employment as well as in the government field," Costello said.

M'NUTT FACES BATTLE OVER LABOR POWERS

By CHARLES MOLONY

Washington, Feb. 25 (AP)—The man on Washington's well-worn hot spot today is Paul V. McNutt.

Developments of the next few weeks may determine whether the tall, handsome War Manpower commissioner can retain his control over the occupational destinies of some 60,000,000 to 70,000,000 Americans, a power greater than ever before was vested in any one man.

Congress threw down what amounted to a gage of battle yesterday when one of its committees refused to give him the money he said was needed to carry out his ambitious program of re-shuffling the work-a-day lives of thousands.

Chief Problem

The manpower chief's problem could be summed up this way:
He must, within time limits he has set—10 weeks at most—be finding war jobs for vast numbers whom he has ordered out of non-essential work.

To do this effectively, he must expand and strengthen his agency—and he must get authority from Congress before he can achieve the strengthening and expanding.

Congress' initial reaction came from the House Appropriations committee, which refused flatly to authorize a penny of the $2,450,000 he said he must have to put his job-placement agency, the United States Employment Service, into shape to help carry out his "work or fight" ultimatum to family men.

Moreover, it ignored his protest against a requirement that the Senate confirm higher ranking WMC appointees.

The course he will choose remained uncertain as the committee action found McNutt on a speech-making tour that sent him to Philadelphia today.

Convention held at the court house here on Friday.

Miss Esther Hartman, West Middle street, and Miss Thelma Ross, Fourth street, are spending a week's vacation in Philadelphia.

Captain Maurice Weaver has secured a two months' vacation from the Army and is expected home this week. Captain Weaver is a physician at Fort Hamilton, New York.

Fred G. Pfeiffer, Baltimore street, is spending several days with his brother-in-law, H. P. Belknap Philadelphia.

Flashes of Life

SAD END

Indianapolis (AP)—When a police squad raided the headquarters of an alleged race track bookie, one officer tore off the race wire ticker tape.

On it was printed the winner of the sixth race at New Orleans.
It read:
"Tragic Ending."

THE WINNER

Kansas City (AP)—Harold G.
Crowe enjoyed his last cigaret in an ambulance.

Bruised and battered, he explained to police that two men had approached him and asked for cigarets. He had just one, and refused to give it up.

The men, he said, gave him a thorough beating. They told him he had a selfish attitude.

INSOMNIA CURE

Denver (AP)—T. J. Shingle reported to police that he had hidden $30 inside his pillow case.

A burglar stole it while he slept.

ANONYMOUS TIP

Danville, Ill. (AP)—Sherrell C.
Punk didn't know a window in his home had been broken until the telephone rang and a boyish voice asked, "did you find the note and money?"

Investigating, Punk found a small storm window broken. On the porch, he discovered a note of apology held down by 61 cents in dimes and pennies and signed "the Sorrowers."

DEFERMENT OF MINER BRINGS STRIKE BY 300

Canonsburg, Pa., Feb. 25 (AP)—

Approximately 300 men at the nearby Moutour No. 4 mine of the Pittsburgh Coal company left their jobs yesterday, protesting that the company obtained draft deferment for one of the miners.

A company spokesman said the man in question, Walter Chaffon, operates a loading machine which requires "skill and training of the kind both state and federal draft authorities have agreed operators must seek to retain."

He added that Chaffon had been given two six-month deferments and the company was asking for a third one.

Peter Defillippo, recording secretary of Local 1198, United Mine Workers of America, said he and a committee notified the company several months ago that "we would not work with Chaffon if he got another deferment."

Single, 25 Years Old

"He is single, without dependents and about 25 years old," said Defil-ippo. "We have other men in the mine who could easily take his place.
Some of our members have been drafted and so many others have sons who have been that we don't think this is a fair deal."

"My own son, Harry Defillippo, is a first sergeant in the Air Corps.
The new superintendent here, T. M.
Ferguson, has refused to meet with our committee. For these reasons, the men felt they had no alternative but to strike."

The company spokesman declared:
"Not only is it our general routine practice to ask for deferment but we are 100 men short at that mine."

TRIBESMEN ON AFRICAN SANDS SEEKING PEACE

By THOBURN WIAN

Cairo (AP)—Two prominent leaders of the Senussi, those gallant tribesmen who have fought more than 30 years for the right to live at peace in their native Cirenaica, say all of the Senussi now are looking forward to establishment of an independent state, with the Grand Senussi, Sayid Mohammed Idris el Senussi, as their titular ruler.

Although the British have declared they have no desire for permanent territorial gains as a result of the Eighth Army's sensational victories in the western desert, these Senussi leaders—who asked that their names be withheld—said in an exclusive interview that they hoped the British would provide some sort of temporary protection for the hoped-for Senussi state, along with preliminary financial aid. They explained their people were not ready for complete independence, but guidance in developing and improving their green, fertile, rolling lands along the Mediterranean between Bengasi and Derna.

For hundreds of years, Cirenaica and Tripolitania were separate countries, but the Italians combined them after World War I and called the whole expanse Libya.

Fascinating History

The history of the Senussi is fascinating. The movement was founded more than 100 years ago by Sayid Mohammed Ibn Ali el Senussi, a reformer who believed the simplicity of primitive Islam had been obscured. As a young man, Sayid Mohammed travelled in the Sahara as an itinerant missionary, preaching a reformed Islam.

His teachings spread like wildfire—from Arabia to Morocco. The Senussi soon achieved great political power, which they held in varying degrees down through the years.

The Senussi creed leads the hardship-toughened tribesmen to admire law, order and material development. Most don't smoke, or drink beverages as strong as tea. Their holy city is Jarabub, where Sayid Mohammed was buried in 1860.

After the Italians took over Libya, they started colonization in Cirena-ica on a grandiose scale.

Senussi leaders interviewed here conceded the Italians had made many improvements—such as roads and irrigation—during their quarter-of-a-century occupation, but emphasized the oppressors had been extremely cruel. Many natives were hanged. Some were shot.

Cirenaica has been occupied by the British three times in this war.
During the first two occupations,

Widow Awarded $21,131 Verdict

Philadelphia, Feb. 25 (AP)—The widow of Capt. Benjamin Franklin Norwood, U.S.N., who died 90 minutes after a fall in his shower, was awarded a $21,131 verdict against two insurance companies yesterday in Federal court.

Mrs. Norwood's medical witnesses contended death was caused by a head injury suffered in the fall. Witnesses for the insurance companies said he died because of heart trouble or high blood pressure. The trial lasted seven days.

Norwood's death occurred on January 12, 1942, in his New York city apartment. Defendants in the case were the Great American Indemnity company, and the Prudential Insurance company.

Nazi Naval Base Blasted By RAF

London, Feb. 25 (AP)—RAF bom-

Wilhelmshaven and objectives in western Germany last night without the loss of a plane, it was announced today.

Allied fliers last hit Wilhelmshaven
Friday night. The latest attack was the sixteenth on Germany this month.

The blow at Wilhelmshaven appeared to assure the RAF a new record for the number of tons of bombs dropped on Axis targets in a single month.

cupation, however, the colonists moved out—most of them apparently to Italy. The British found only priests in many of the villages, and the Senussi lost no time in taking over.

FOOD RATIONS ESSENTIAL TO "WINNING WAR"

By JACK STINNETT

Washington—"We've got to make up our minds whether we want butter or Berlin, tenderloins or Tokyo."

In that pithy quip Dr. Thomas Parran, surgeon general of the U. S. Health Service, sums up the food situation of the future.

And in it, too, is the answer to the question being asked in the kitchen and grocery stores of the land: "Where is this rationing going to end?"

If any one could answer that question, he would be a wizard and you could wager your last kopek that OPA Administrator Prentiss M. Brown; Secretary of Agriculture Wickard, and Manpower Commissioner Paul V. McNutt would do battle royal for his services.

The reasons for shortages are really not so complex. One fourth of our food supply is going to the military forces and lend-lease. People with more eating money in their pockets than they have had for years are gobbling up the rest. Wages paid industrial workers alone increased nearly 22 per cent in the six months previous to September, 1942.

This condition is, of course, creating dislocations. Farmers, short of manpower, machinery and adequate transportation equipment, are wondering how they can maintain last year's levels, much less increase production to the highs called for by Secretary Wickard.

The reason for rationing is simply to assure a fair distribution of what there is. Under the poor will eat better; the rich, a much simpler and more monotonous fare than they are accustomed to.

Could the situation become critical?

It could. A bad growing season would cause havoc with the delicate balance now in prospect between a satisfactory diet and the demand for such.

The distribution system could bog down, too, and it is believed that in scattered communities it will. Farmers who have depended on trucks for long hauls will find them wearing out. In such cases, their only out will be short hauls to already overburdened railroads.

The third danger is manpower. It's not difficult to shut off the draft of farm workers.

Just how serious this might become is seen in the estimate that 1,300,000 workers will leave the farms this year and that the farmers will need 200,000 more workers than they had in 1942. That 1,500,000 is going to have to be drummed up from somewhere if we're going to get the job done.

It looks as though Doctor Parran was right.

4 GET $500,000

Philadelphia, Feb. 25 (AP)—Edward F. Shanbaker, prominent Philadelphia banker, left the bulk of his $500,000 estate to two nieces and two nephews, Christiana Stager Dougherty, Olive K. Stager, Daniel H. Stager and Victor C. Lambrecht, in a will filed for probate yesterday. No bequest was made to his son, Frederick B. Shanbaker, former Philadelphia newspaperman, because of "ample provision" previously made for him, the will disclosed.

Glycerine was found in 1779 by K. W. Scheele, a Swedish chemist.

Soldiers Withheld From Cotton Fields

Salt Lake City, Feb. 25 (AP)—The Army, which last Tuesday said it would permit use of troops to pick Arizona's vital long-staple cotton crop, postponed the necessary authorization last night without explanation.

The postponement, disclosed at the headquarters of the Ninth Service Command, probably will mean loss of approximately 7,500 bales of the war-essential fiber, Earl Maharg, executive secretary of the Arizona Farm Bureau federation, said.

PETITION DUFF TO FORCE STATE RE-DISTRICTING

Harrisburg, Feb. 25 (AP)—An unprecedented petition to force passage of legislation reapportioning the state Senate and House districts was in the hands of Attorney General James H. Duff today.

Officers and directors of the Northeast Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce demanded that the attorney general institute judicial proceedings against the Legislature as a body, its members individually and Governor Edward Martin.

It cited a state constitution requirement that the state be divided into districts "of compact and contiguous territory as nearly equal in population as may be" and the fact that past Legislatures have neglected to act after each decennial census as the constitution provides.

Governor Martin has urged reap-

Lost Boys Leave Abandoned Mine

Scranton, Pa., Feb. 25 (AP)—Cold and weak, two Scranton boys found their way out of an abandoned mine yesterday after being lost 24 hours.

The boys, Robert Ritchie, 13, and Paul Foytack, 12, entered the working mine in after falling from Ritchie's hand.

Police and Boy Scouts had searched for them in a nearby woods.

portionment of congressional, senatorial and judicial districts, but the Legislature has not taken any action in its present session.

An authoritative source said it was likely that the Attorney General's office would decline to act, on the basis that the judiciary is not empowered to exercise authority over the legislative and executive branches.

For years the Fuggers, 16th century German bankers and industrialists, made 54 1/2% on their money.

Finland Denies She Is Negotiating For Separate Peace With Soviet Russia

MANY RUMORS PERSIST FOR EARLY TREATY

Helsinki, Finland, Feb. 24 (Delayed) (AP)—A Foreign Office spokesman, commenting on reports which have gained currency abroad, denied categorically tonight that the Finnish government had entered into any negotiations for a separate peace with Soviet Russia.

By WADE WERNER

Washington, Feb. 25 (AP)—For the second time in this global war little Finland seems close to the end of armed conflict with Russia. The air is full of unofficial and unverified reports and conjectures, including rumors that peace terms actually have been transmitted by the Finns through Stockholm.

It was just three years ago that similar reports circulated in various capitals, though at that time there was furious fighting on the Russo-Finnish front, in contrast to the relative quiet there today.

Now the talk is once again of Finnish-Russian peace, or more specifically, of Finland's withdrawal from Germany's war against Russia.

To Hold Lines

The Finns contend they already have withdrawn from any active military operations, having recovered the territory they lost in 1940, and that their only object now is to hold their lines against Russian attack.

Information reaching Washington through diplomatic channels indicates the Finns soon will draw up specific proposals, if indeed they have not already done so.

The presence of some 100,000 German troops on Finnish soil has often been cited as the chief barrier to any Russo-Finnish settlement, also the fact that Finland depends on Germany for food shipments.

However, the recent frantic "this is the cruel truth" speech of Nazi Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels has been interpreted in some quarters as an indication that Germany would be glad to get an armistice in the east; if not on the whole front, then at least on the 1000-mile Finnish section of it. She could use those 100,000 soldiers elsewhere.

ARMY LIFE TOUGH ON VEGETARIAN

Great Falls, Mont. (AP)—Private Benny Bee says the Army is pretty tough on a vegetarian, and he has been one for 23 years.

Benny passes up all the untasty things like chicken, roast beef and turkey. "I hate meat and I don't eat anything that walks, swims, crawls or flies," says Benny. "And no pastry, please."

In the Army that takes in a lot of eating territory and so Benny has to be content with bread, potatoes and salads, of which he wishes there were more.

"My advice to vegetarians who go into the Army is this: Bring your own truck garden with you," says Ben.

Yanks In England Anxious For Scrap

London, Feb. 25 (AP)—War Minister James Grigg said today in the House of Commons, he trusted that impatient American soldiers here "will not have to wait much longer" for a mass attack against the enemy.

In a speech introducing a new British Army appropriation bill, Sir James remarked that United States forces had been linked by the delay in "engaging themselves in bulk against the enemy."

"When their chance does come, we know that they will acquire themselves doughtily and that the mother country as well as the cause of civilization generally will have abundant reason to be grateful to them," he said.

FOOD PROBLEM, LABOR SHORTAGE LOCAL ISSUES

Philadelphia, Feb. 25 (AP)—Insisting that the public must accept the agricultural situation as a national responsibility if food requirements are to be met, Miles Horst, State Secretary of Agriculture, today asked that every community make plans to help relieve the critical farm labor shortage.

Horst, in an address prepared for delivery at the conservation forum here, said "it is senseless to expect the farmer to plan expanded production without some assurance that the crops will be harvested."

Declaring "there must be no breakdown in the food production," Horst said plans must be made in every community to provide necessary farm manpower. The farmer, he said, is willing to do everything possible to produce more crops if he is assured adequate labor assistance.

Horst pointed out that the loss of one man to the armed forces can work a tremendous hardship on small farms and that Pennsylvania farms average 86 acres. "The logical course," he added, "would be to turn to a still greater mechanization of the farm operation, but this is not possible with the manufacture of farm equipment reduced far below the quantity which was available in normal times."

$780 Yearly Income
He said the average return to the Pennsylvania farm operator for his labor is about 15½ cents an hour, or an annual cash income of $780.

Horst insisted that neither regimentation or subsidies, which he termed "a subtle form of paternalism," is the solution to the farm problem.

"The paramount problem at the present time is manpower," he said, "and the country at large must aid in the solution of that problem at once to assure food supplies required in the war effort."

The Chilean flag consists of two horizontal bars; the lower half red, the upper half white with blue field and white star near mast.

Wavell's Raiders Ruin Jap Village

New Delhi, India, Feb. 25 (AP)—Commando-like raiders from Marshal Sir Archibald P. Wavell's forces carried out an attack on a small Japanese-occupied village, 60 miles southeast of Akyab, in Burma three nights ago and destroyed all installations which had been useful to the enemy, it was announced today.

"On the night of February 22-23 one of our fighting patrols carried out a successful attack on the enemy occupied village of Myebon about 60 miles southeast of Akyab," said the British communique.

"Our troops landed from vessels of the Royal Indian Navy Coastal forces and remained in possession of the place about five hours. All buildings which had been useful to the enemy were burned. The jetty was blown up and a 100-foot river steamer was destroyed. The opposition was very slight and quickly overcome. The raiders suffered no casualties, the communique added.

ALL'S NOT GOLDFISH

BIO-MINERAL FOR BETTER HEALTH!

WITH YOUR OWN EYES! SEE AND BELIEVE the relief you get from these ailments. By a NATURAL astonishing easy way. Without the use of harmful drugs. You may UPROOT and drive them OUT of your system. Regardless of how long you have been suffering. It takes ONLY 3 days to prove it. To SEE—NOT to guess the results.

DRUGLESS HEALTH—NATURE'S WAY . . . Cathartics DO NOT CURE constipation. Doctors can tell you that! BIO-MINERAL is NOT a cathartic. It works the NATURAL way. Watch your elimination from your bowels after taking BIO-MINERAL. In 2 or 3 days, the waste, black as coal and hard as rock, may break from the walls of the colon, and you will see it in the stool. It is almost unbelievable that such waste could be in your intestines, UNTIL YOU SEE IT!

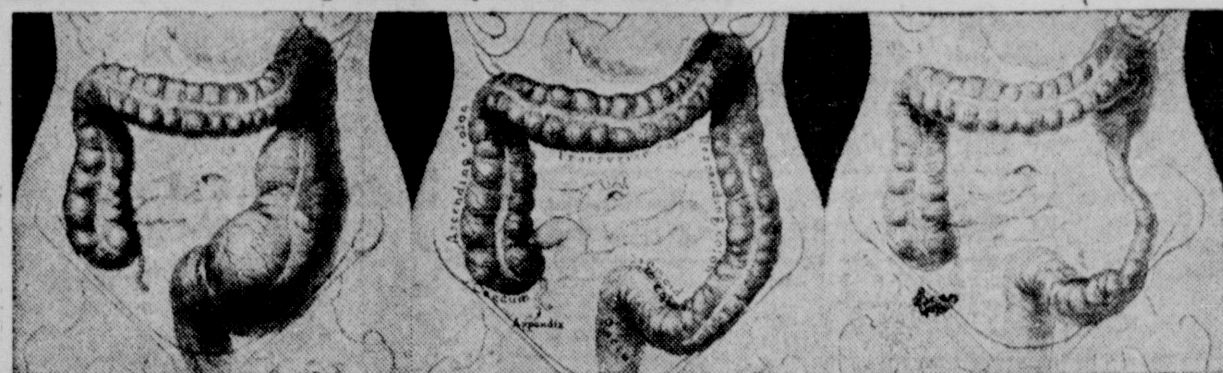

AFTER 3 DAYS examine your urine. You may see small pieces of white stone, threads and crystal-like matter, which should not be in your system—POISONS—coming out, relieving you! THESE poisons, collecting there probably for years, like rust in an old iron pipe, were weakening your kidneys and ruining your digestive system. Be sure to watch for these symptoms to realize the priceless value of BIO-MINERAL.

With Your Own Eyes! See and Believe!

PHARMACISTS—CHEMISTS do not make BIO-MINERAL. It comes from the depths of the earth, Nature's laboratory. Contains NO alcohol—NO drugs—NO oil. NOT a SINGLE habit forming ingredient. ONLY Natural, Life-Giving MINERALS—the oldest and most reliable remedy for Rheumatism, Arthritis, Neuritis, Stomach and Kidney disorders.

FOR MANY CENTURIES, Medical science has believed in the curative properties of minerals. Now, as never before, Doctors, Hospitals, Sanatoriums, Naturalists and Specialists are stressing the importance of Minerals. The cry is: MINERALS!!! MINERALS!!! Sufferers go to mineral springs to get cure or relief. In BIO-MINERAL you get the very same Natural minerals of the famous springs in highly-concentrated form. As a logical thing, there should be a bottle of BIO-MINERAL in every home to take the place of physics, cathartics, oils and all harmful drugs.

BIO-MINERAL gets down to the root and works in your intestines . . . neutralizing, throwing away waste materials, gas, toxins and bloating. Not like physics, oils and cathartics do . . . but in a Natural, harmless and painless way—doing a real "house-cleaning." It is easy to take and safe for delicate organisms. Try it! It is marvelous.

This affected colon is often the cause of many ailments, leading to serious complications. It should be corrected. USE BIO-MINERAL

AN IDEAL HEALTHY COLON With BIO-MINERAL, you can keep the colon clean and healthy, eliminating the accumulated poisons matter. USE BIO-MINERAL

GELDER SAYS LIQUOR RATION PLAN WORKING

Harrisburg, Feb. 25 (AP)—Pennsylvania's limited liquor rationing program "seems to be working fairly well," Chairman Frederick T. Gelder of the Liquor Control board declared today.

"We haven't had too much criticism of it," he asserted. "It's going to be a difficult job ever to get a definite rationing program in liquor. We are going along with a semi-rationing state."

The board has required taprooms to make their purchases at one store so merchandise can be divided according to the available limited supply. If a store gave two-thirds of its stock to vendors and one-third to individuals a year ago, it is continuing on the same basis.

"There is still a decided shortage of all low-priced brands," Gelder reported, "but conditions are somewhat better in the higher priced class."

"We have been building up a surplus on inventory considerably higher than in December, although we haven't got the stock we ordinarily would have."

"Sales are nearer normal than during the latter part of 1942 when a run-on-the-bank condition depleted supplies. Demand at some outlets has doubled but they can't get that much liquor. No taprooms have been forced to close, however."

Gelder said January sales were heavier than during the same month a year ago even though the rush has subsided. The state monopoly did a business of $127,651,000 in 1942 compared with $97,939,000 the previous year.

The board chairman warned there

Erie Fire Causes $250,000 Damages

Erie, Pa., Feb. 25 (AP)—Fire Chief Lawrence Scully reported the loss caused by a fire which destroyed three State street stores and damaged five other shops yesterday was estimated at $250,000 by managers of the stores. He said the cause probably never would be determined.

Thousands of gallons of water were poured into the buildings and for a time it was feared that a sub-surface vault housing electrical conduits for practically all the electric power in the downtown area would collapse. Workmen were able to shore up the vault walls before any damage was done, however.

will be "materially less" liquor this year, barring unexpected developments in the liquor industry which has been converted to war production.

FACE BATTLE ON APPOINTEES

Washington, Feb. 25 (AP)—Legislation requiring Senate confirmation of most federal appointees receiving $4,500 or more a year headed for a showdown today with increasing prospects it would find members of the Democratic majority scrapping among themselves over policy.

Revised by a Senate judiciary subcommittee but still regarded as objectionable to President Roosevelt, the measure went to a test vote in the full committee with Chairman Van Nuys (D-Ind.) predicting support of most members.

Responsibility for bringing up the bill on the Senate floor, providing it wins the committee's approval, appeared likely to fall to the Democratic steering committee, which appeared divided on its merits.

Democratic Leader Barkley of Kentucky, who assured protesting steering members in the last Congress they would be consulted on controversial matters hereafter, said only that he had opposed legislation of this character in the past.

Completing revision of the measure Tuesday, Chairman McFarland (D-Ariz.) of the judiciary subcommittee expressed belief "we have eliminated many of the objectionable sections."

May Meet To Plan On Post-War Food

Washington, Feb. 25 (AP)—A United Nations conference to discuss plans for a post-war international food supply program—designed to prevent famines or surpluses and insure profit for growers—appearing in the offing Wednesday.

President Roosevelt disclosed during a press conference yesterday that such a session was under consideration.

Two Jail Breakers Surrender Selves

Towanda, Pa., Feb. 25 (AP)—Two of three prisoners who escaped from Bradford county jail Sunday night surrendered to police early Wednesday and were returned to their cells.

The third, Robert Evans, of Elmira, N. Y., remained at large. The two who returned, Harold and Benjamin Vanderpool, alleged parole violators, said they had hidden in a woods near here but decided to give themselves up because of a sudden cold spell.

They went to the home of Benjamin Vanderpool's father, Benjamin, in South Towanda, and he summoned state police.

The men escaped after Harold Vanderpool struck Deputy Sheriff William Chaffee as he was opening the cell block door, Chaffee said. All were awaiting trial on larceny charges.

Consideration, but emphasized that no definite decision has been reached concerning it.

CONGRESS EYES DRAFT CHANGE

Washington, Feb. 25 (AP)—Congressional applause for the Army's decision to furlough troop units to help farmers with their harvests was accompanied Wednesday by demands for the drafting of older men into the armed forces to obviate the need of taking fathers.

Senator Wheeler (D-Mont.) disclosed he was thinking of offering a broad amendment to the Selective Service act to exempt all fathers, living with their families, from Army service.

This would go much farther than legislation sponsored in the House by Representative Kilday (D-Tex.) who proposes to set up a series of classifications under which fathers would be deferred until all able bachelors and childless married men had been drafted.

Wheeler and Chairman Smith (D-SC) of the Senate Agriculture committee agreed that the drafting of single and childless married men between 38 and 45 would have to be resumed to meet the Army goal

$200,000 Downtown Fire In Erie

Erie, Pa., Feb. 25 (AP)—A fire fought by 100 firemen destroyed one store building and damaged three others in the downtown business district Wednesday, causing a loss estimated unofficially at $200,000.

The flames wrecked the three-story S. S. Kresge Co. 25 cents-to-$1 store and spread to the top of an adjoining three-story apartment and store building housing the Lerner women's clothing shop, the Health Shoe shop, the Hat Box and the Vera Voyle beauty shop. Seventeen persons escaped safely from the apartments.

The Kresge store and the Alexander Fur Shop were damaged by smoke. Louis Eaton, manager of Kresge's, estimated the loss of its stock at $75,000 and fire and smoke damage to all four buildings at $125,000.

of 8,200,000 men by December 31.

Both said Lieut. Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, deputy chief of staff, convinced them at an executive session that the Army could use that force "especially since we are fighting all over the world and trying to extend the Four Freedoms to everybody on the face of the globe."

SHIP BUILDING STANDARDIZED

Washington, Feb. 25 (AP)—War Shipping Administrator Emory S. Land informed Congress Wednesday that the nation's shipbuilding facilities had been standardized to produce 20,000,000 tons a year, and expressed belief that a further increase should not be attempted "because of material limitations."

His opinion was disclosed in testimony made public before the House deficiency appropriations subcommittee, before which he appeared to seek additional funds and contract authorizations to meet the costs of a mighty merchant fleet now a-building on newly expanded ways. Simultaneously, he reported that the average profit realized by contractors on the construction of ships would run from a "minimum of about three per cent up to around a possible eight or nine per cent, and a maximum, in any case, of ten per cent."

More men are said to be color blind than women.

Eight Overcome Fighting Blaze

Philadelphia, Feb. 25 (AP)—Eight firemen were overcome and 12 others made ill by smoke while fighting a minor fire in the basement of a Lancaster avenue food market Wednesday. Those overcome, including fire Lieut. John T. Pusey, 54, were released after treatment at a hospital.

Packing boxes and materials stored in the basement were destroyed by the fire.

She Flies High As A Trans-Atlantic Stewardess

By GLADYS DEGNER
Wide World Feature Writer

Holder of one of the world's most exciting jobs is twinkly, brown-eyed Adele Jenkins, who flies to Ireland and back regularly and hobnobs with the great and the near-great as part of the day's work.

She is one of seven stewardesses who rotate turns on the American Export Line's new "Flying Aces," once planned as luxury transatlantic airliners, now carrying diplomats and generals, war technicians and kings.

"People are wonderful," says Adele. She loves adventure, too, and that's why she's where she is today, flying to Europe and back as casually as she once boarded a streetcar, taking care of from 16 to 24 passengers every trip.

The primary qualification for Adele's job is personality. And Adele is bubbling over with it. Then too she has the required experience as a hostess on domestic planes. She figures she's flown nearly a million miles. Since her first flight in May with American Export, she's covered more than 18,000 miles. Adele is a pioneer among airline stewardesses, one of the first 20 picked from 1,600 applicants in 1935 when one company put hostesses on its flights.

Enthusiastic Adele was such a hit on her job in those days that she was asked to help establish a school for airline hostesses. She taught them what to do and how to do it. Later, because of her interest in getting women to fly, she became the company's women's sales representative.

It was easy for Adele to sell flying, but despite her success at this she was anxious to get back to it herself. She says:

"I was thrilled to death to get a job as stewardess on the Flying Aces. I have always liked working in the cabin of a plane better than behind a desk. Guess it's because I like people and adventure so much. Really, it's wonderful. Every one is friendly and interested in everything that goes on aboard. There just aren't the same stiff conventions as on trains."

"I wish I could tell you about individual passengers but it's against regulations—a military secret, really. Most of them are diplomats or civilians concerned in some way with the war effort. They are all priority passengers and each one has a good reason for making the trip."

The passengers are kept amused with cards, games and all the reading material they want. Adele sees to that. There's more work than that to be done, though—some 20 mouths to be fed and that many berths to be made up when the travelers are ready for sleep.

"And they do sleep; the trip is smooth sailing all the way," says Adele. "It's not like flying over land, when you take plenty of bumps over certain sections of the country."

Every "Flying Ace" has a crew of 11. One is the steward who does the cooking and heavy work, and relieves the stewardess while she sleeps.

Adele is adept at keeping the passengers cheerful and interested. She says:

"One time several men wanted to see where the delicious meals are cooked. They said they'd help me carry the dishes if I'd show them. I did, and you should have seen their eyes pop. The galley is the most compact yet completely equipped kitchen you can imagine."

"On another trip, I had seven children going back to their homes. Two were Russian and five were British. They were all over the ship—under my feet when I was making up the berths, and in my paths as I served the food. But it was fun. They weren't naughty, just healthy, impish kids. I asked them if they wanted me to tell a story and one little 5-year-old said, 'Yes, about home.'"

One of Adele's biggest thrills was to see Ireland for the first time. "It's greener and more beautiful than books tell," she says. "The old inn where we stay is a charming place called Dunraven Arms on the estate of the Earl of Dunraven. It's a sight to see the little thatched cottages and the people riding around in donkey carts. Everyone has al-

Claim Solution Of Magnetic Mines

Stockholm (AP)—Swedish naval experts, working with technicians of the Swedish General Electric Company, have solved the problem of magnetic mines, they announce. The Navy has opened a demagnetizing station outside of Stockholm, on Sweden's east coast, and offers the service to merchant shipping free of charge.

While technical details have not been made public, it is said the ships are treated to an "electrical massage" by passing through powerful high tension fields. The hull of the ship is also wired with cables, similar to the De Gauss devices first used by Great Britain. Experts claim the treatment and wiring completely protects a ship against magnetic mines lying from 33 to 45 feet below a ship's hull, although "it is not practical to completely eliminate the magnetic qualities of the steel masses involved."

AEE TO LEARN FOREIGN TONGUES

London (AP)—United States soldiers in the European theatre of operations will soon be studying languages—French, German and Italian—against the day when they'll be in those countries.

Records of instruction in foreign speech are to be put in every recreation center, for use in phonographs provided each camp. The instruction programs will be supervised by the special service branch of the Army.

SEEK BODIES OF 20 PERSONS ON YANKEE CLIPPER

Lisbon, Feb. 25 (AP)—Lisbon harbor police searched the Tagus river Wednesday for the bodies of 20 persons missing after the crash of the Yankee Clipper here Monday evening at the end of a flight from New York.

Sixteen passengers and crewmen aboard the giant flying boat survived the crash, but one died later ashore. The bodies of three others were recovered yesterday.

The rescue crews were hampered by the currents of the Tagus and their efforts to bring the shattered wreckage of the ship ashore.

Prominent entertainers, foreign correspondents and business men were listed among the passengers of the Yankee Clipper.

The Civil Aeronautics Board said in Washington that two of the four known dead had been tentatively identified as H. Stanton Rush, 27, of New York, first officer on the plane, and Manuel Diaz of Pelham Manor, N. Y., a partner in the steamship agency of Garcia and Diaz.

Missing Persons

Among the passengers not listed as identified survivors were Ben Robertson, 37, foreign correspondent for the New York Herald Tribune, and Frank Cuhel, 38, of Cedar

MARTIN TO ASK HUGE TAX CUT

Harrisburg, Feb. 25 (AP)—Governor Martin said Wednesday he would recommend a $40,000,000 tax reduction in his budget message to the Legislature next Monday night.

He proposes to eliminate the four-mill state personal property tax, bank shares, corporate loans and probably the mercantile levies.

"I can't recommend elimination of the gasoline tax, relief tax on liquor and cigarettes or the inheritance tax," the Governor told a press conference, referring to published reports such reductions were under consideration.

Martin is expected to ask an overall budget of approximately $500,000,000 for operation of the state government during the biennium starting June 1. This compares with $613,000,000 for the current two-year fiscal period.

Other passengers not listed as identified survivors were:

Arthur A. Lee, 48, an independent motion picture producer of Harrison, N. Y.

Harry G. Seidel, 52, European representative of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey.

Tamara Swann, of New York, a singer known as "Tamara," who became a popular theatrical figure after appearing in Jerome Kern's "Gowns by Roberta."

JAP SHIP HIT BY U.S. FLIERS

Allied headquarters in Australia, Feb. 25 (AP)—Dodging through intense anti-aircraft fire, Flying Fortress crews of Gen. Douglas MacArthur's command dropped three 500-pound bombs on a Japanese cruiser or large destroyer in Rabaul harbor in New Britain yesterday and scored hits within 25 feet of a 7,000-ton Cargo vessel, an Allied communique said Wednesday.

The Fortresses then bombed the waterfront, starting fires and strafed two schooners in Ataliklikun Bay from a low altitude.

In Portuguese Timor, other heavy bombers attacked the airdrome at Koepang and shot down two of 10 Japanese fighters which attempted to intercept, the communique said.

Giving no rest to the Japanese ground forces at Lae, New Guinea, and in the areas to the southeast, Allied bombers strafed the town and nearby villages in night and day attacks while other aircraft forced the Japanese to withdraw from other villages toward Mubo in a series of low-level sweeps, it was announced.

Lorraine and Rogan. Rogan's wife and dancing partner, Jean Muriel was listed among the survivors.

U.S. Air Base In India Is Bombed

Bombay, Feb. 25 (AP)—A small formation of Japanese bombers escorted by fighters attacked the U.S. air base in Assam province on Tuesday afternoon, but casualties were slight and no material damage was caused, a U.S. Army Air Force communique said today.

The attack was made from a high altitude and was the first Japanese raid on any United States base in India since last October, when the Japanese lost so many planes in a series of raids they were forced to go on the defensive, the communique said.

Two U.S. fighter planes strafed two locomotives at Japanese occupied Meza in northern Burma Sunday, blowing up one of the locomotives and damaging the other, it was announced. Both the American planes returned safely to their base.

Driver Burned In Averting Explosion

Philadelphia, Feb. 25 (AP)—Clifford Davis, 28, a tank truck driver, ran through flames from a burning gasoline storage tank to uncouple his truck Wednesday and firemen said he probably had averted an explosion.

Davis was burned slightly about the head before he could drive the truck out of danger. Robert B. Prell, 21, stationed at the Navy yard, suffered lacerations of the hand as he and several other sailors helped push a number of parked cars away from the fire.

An Open Letter to Our Customers About Shoe Rationing

FROM THE MAKERS OF OUR ENDICOTT-JOHNSON SHOES

ENDICOTT JOHNSON CORPORATION
BETTER SHOES FOR LESS MONEY
ENDICOTT, N. Y.

Feb. 15, 1943

TO OUR CUSTOMERS

Shoe Ration Order # 17, now in force, effects the distribution of shoes from the manufacturer, to the retailer, to the consumer.

After reading the order carefully, it is our opinion that the welfare of everyone involved in the shoe business, including the consumer, is now well protected so that you as a merchant can look into the future with confidence.

Under the rationing plan, it is only natural that the consumer will be looking for good substantial long wearing shoes. Endicott Johnson Corporation have established themselves with the trade generally over a long period of years as having consistently followed the policy of always constructing good wearing shoes sold to the masses at popular prices. Nobody knows better than shoe merchants that price does not always mean longer wearing shoes; often quite the contrary.

Preference Order M80, issued by the Government last March, made it necessary for all manufacturers, regardless of grades, to discontinue using all leather soles eight and one-half iron and up of a quality suitable for military purposes. Therefore, you can assure your customers that insofar as wear is concerned, it is not necessary for them to pay more for their shoes in order to be assured of satisfactory wear because of rationing.

Many of our lines, such as Men's and Boys' dress shoes, Men's and Boys' work shoes, and Children's shoes, are made with composition rubber soles. Even though they are retailed at low popular prices, the wear which the consumer receives in these lines of shoes is probably two to three times greater than the wear they could possibly get with leather soles, even though the retail price is considerably higher.

During the past year we have been fortunate in securing sufficient labor and material so as to keep you reasonably well supplied with merchandise, and you can rest assured it is our desire to continue to do so in the future.

Sincerely yours,
Chas. F. Johnson, Jr.
Vice President and General Manager.
